TESTIMONIALS

"NYC was still reeling from its latest heatwave, which led to a lot of guys operating a strict open-shirt policy. Regardless of where your position lies on undoing more than two buttons, we can all agree that the main event here is a seriously strong printed co-ord. It takes a confident man to wear head-to-toe print, but fashion favours the brave and this dude has been duly rewarded. He gets extra glory for the addition of a contrasting neon cap.

"This is what TAFT is all about...being bold, taking risks, and expressing yourself. @thecreativegentleman always keeps it fresh...better believe he is catching when he passes."

— Taft

"When it comes to style and men's fashion, O'neil definitely knows how to pair pieces from every spectrum. His looks are effortless and well thought out. This man knows that styling is one of the most important parts of a man's outfit. "

— Diego Downtown
